

Contents

1. Background to the study of speech	2
What is speech?	3
What will speech require of me?	3
What will I get out of speech training?	4
How can I get the most out of speech training?	5
What are the different kinds of speeches?	5
Summary	7
2. Listening	9
How to be an effective listener	9
How the speaker can help the listener	11
Summary	12
Listening Report	13
Explanation of listening report form	14
3. Oral reports	15
Selecting a subject	15
Organizing the oral report	16
Using methods of support	18
Preparing the oral report	19
Preparing the delivery	20
Summary	21
4. Speech outlines and transitions	23
Identifying points in the outline	23
Numbering in the speech outline	24
Types of outlines	24
Transitions	26
Summary	29
5. Speech subject, central idea, main points, and supports	31
Speech subject	31
Central idea	32
Main points	33
Supports	34
Summary	40

6.	Title, introduction, and conclusion	42
	Title	42
	Introduction	44
	Conclusion	50
	Summary	52
7.	General situation speeches	54
	Informative speeches	54
	Persuasive speeches	63
	Summary	67
	Speech outline	68
	Explanation of speech outline	68
8.	Special situation speeches	70
	Speeches to motivate	70
	Speeches of presentation and acceptance	78
	Making an announcement	78
	After-dinner speeches	79
	Impromptu speeches	79
	Summary	81
9.	Reaching decisions through discussion	83
	Panel discussions	83
	Symposiums	84
	Group discussion	85
	Summary	87
10.	Vocal aspects of delivery	89
	Requirements of a good voice	89
	Vocal quality	93
	Articulation	94
	Pronunciation	95
	Exercises	96
	Summary	101
11.	Physical aspects of delivery	103
	Gestures	104
	Physical movements	105
	Bearing	106
	Summary	107
12.	Language aspects of delivery	109
	Dictionaries	109
	Language levels	110
	Appropriate language levels for public speaking	111
	Words with audience appeal	111
	Sentence structure	113
	Summary	114
	Speech assignments	115
	Index	117