

Cases

| | | |
|----------|---|-----|
| Case 1: | The Humane Murder of a Helpless Infant | 15 |
| Case 2: | Physician Advertising and the FTC | 79 |
| Case 3: | The Health Professional's Duty to Warn a Potential Murder Victim | 108 |
| Case 4: | Breaking Confidentiality to Try to Benefit a Patient | 141 |
| Case 5: | High Risk—High Gain | 162 |
| Case 6: | Health Planning on Fictitious Island | 171 |
| Case 7: | The Homosexual Husband | 178 |
| Case 8: | Consent for Research on Human Placentas | 190 |
| Case 9: | Active Killing with Parental Consent | 228 |
| Case 10: | Justice and Efficiency in Care for the Mentally Retarded | 252 |
| Case 11: | The Physician as Executioner | 293 |
| Case 12: | Choosing among the Rules | 316 |

Contents

| | |
|--------------|----|
| Cases | v |
| Preface | xi |
| Introduction | 3 |

PART I

Hippocrates, the Popes, Ahimsa, and Patient's Rights: A History of Diversity

| | |
|---|----|
| Chapter 1 The Hippocratic Tradition | 15 |
| The Notion of Theories of Medical Ethics | 16 |
| The Hippocratic Oath | 18 |
| The Hippocratic Tradition | 21 |
| Chapter 2 The Dominant Western Competitors | 27 |
| The Judeo-Christian Tradition | 27 |
| Judaism | 28 |
| Catholic Moral Theology | 33 |
| THE PRINCIPLE OF STEWARDSHIP | 37 |
| THE PRINCIPLE OF THE INVIOABILITY OF HUMAN LIFE | 37 |
| THE PRINCIPLE OF TOTALITY | 38 |
| THE PRINCIPLE OF SEXUALITY AND PROCREATION | 38 |
| THE PRINCIPLE OF DOUBLE EFFECT | 39 |
| Protestantism | 41 |
| The Modern Secular West | 43 |
| Western Liberal Political Philosophy | 44 |
| The Patient's Rights Movement | 47 |
| Chapter 3 Medical Ethical Theories Outside the Anglo-American West | 50 |
| Socialist Medical Ethics | 51 |
| Islamic Medical Ethics | 56 |
| Hindu Medical Ethics | 58 |
| Chinese Medical Ethics | 62 |
| Japanese Medical Ethics | 66 |

PART II

The Basis of Medical Ethics

| | | |
|------------------|---|-----|
| Chapter 4 | The Problems with Professional Physician Ethics | 79 |
| | Professional Ethics and Role-Specific Duties | 82 |
| | The Consensus of Professionals as the Foundation for Professional Ethics | 92 |
| | The Consensus of Professionals as the Way of Knowing Professional Ethics | 97 |
| | The Role of the Profession in Forming Codes and Adjudicating Ethical Disputes | 100 |
| Chapter 5 | The Triple Contract: A New Foundation for Medical Ethics | 108 |
| | The Basic Social Contract | 110 |
| | Discovering a Universal Base for Medical Ethics | 114 |
| | Inventing a Universal Base for Medical Ethics | 118 |
| | A Synthesis Contract Theory | 120 |
| | The Contract between Society and a Profession | 127 |
| | The Contract between Professionals and Patients | 134 |
| | Conclusion | 137 |

PART III

The Principles of Medical Ethics

| | | |
|------------------|---|-----|
| Chapter 6 | Why Not Always Benefit the Patient: Personal and Social Consequences | 141 |
| | The Principle of Beneficence | 145 |
| | Against the Dangerous Hippocratic Principle | 147 |
| | Hippocratic Consequentialism | 147 |
| | Hippocratic Paternalism | 149 |
| | Hippocratic Individualism | 154 |
| | Variants on the Hippocratic Principle | 159 |
| | DO NO HARM | 159 |
| | PROLONG LIFE | 164 |
| | Against the Dangerous Utilitarian Principle | 169 |
| | The Utilitarian Alternative | 170 |
| | Rule Utility as an Option | 175 |
| Chapter 7 | The Principle of Contract Keeping | 177 |
| | Contract Keeping in the Basic Social Contract | 179 |
| | Contract Keeping and the Lay-Professional Contract | 183 |
| | The Problem of Medical Confidentiality | 184 |
| Chapter 8 | The Principle of Autonomy | 190 |
| | Autonomy in the Basic Social Contract | 192 |
| | Autonomy and the Lay-Professional Contract | 197 |
| | The Right to Consent | 200 |

| | | |
|--|-----|-----|
| The Right to Refuse Treatment | 207 | |
| Family and Guardian Autonomy | 209 | |
| Chapter 9 The Principle of Honesty | | 214 |
| Honesty in the Basic Social Contract | 214 | |
| Honesty and the Lay-Professional Contract | 216 | |
| Lying, Deception, and Withholding the Truth | 223 | |
| Chapter 10 The Principle of Avoiding Killing | | 227 |
| Killing in the Basic Social Contract | 229 | |
| Killing and the Lay-Professional Contract | 237 | |
| Killing and the Definition of Death | 240 | |
| Killing and Abortion | 246 | |
| Killing of Animals | 248 | |
| Chapter 11 The Principle of Justice | | 250 |
| Justice and the Social Contract: Four Possible Theories | 253 | |
| The Entitlement Theory | 254 | |
| The Utilitarian Theory | 257 | |
| The Maximin Theory | 261 | |
| The Egalitarian Theory | 264 | |
| THE EQUALITY OF PERSONS | 266 | |
| EQUALITY AND ENVY | 267 | |
| THE IMPLICATIONS OF THE EGALITARIAN FORMULA | 268 | |
| Justice, the Basic Social Contract, and Health Care | 269 | |
| The Case for an Equal Right to Health Care | 270 | |
| The Problem of Voluntary Health Risks | 276 | |
| Justice and the Lay-Professional Contract | 281 | |

PART IV

Relating Cases and Principles

| | | |
|---|-----|-----|
| Chapter 12 When Medical Ethical Principles Conflict | | 291 |
| The Problem of Conflicting Principles | 295 | |
| The Single Overarching Principles | 296 | |
| Lexical Ordering | 298 | |
| The Balancing of Principles of Equal Status | 303 | |
| Chapter 13 Is Every Case in Medical Ethics Unique: The Use of Moral Rules | | 306 |
| The Uniqueness of Benefit-Harm Judgments in Individual Cases | 311 | |
| Varying Rules in Individual Cases | 315 | |
| A Society Governed by Law and Individual Cases | 321 | |
| Chapter 14 A Draft Medical Ethical Covenant | | 324 |
| | | |
| Notes | | 331 |
| Bibliography | | 358 |
| Index | | 373 |