CHAPTER 1

The Science of Psychology 1

QUESTIONS FOR THOUGHT 1

THE GROWTH OF PSYCHOLOGY 3

Wundt and Titchener: Structuralism 3 • Sir Francis Galton: Individual Differences 4 • William James: Functionalism 4 • John B. Watson: Behaviorism 5 • Gestalt Psychology 6 • B. F. Skinner: Behaviorism Revisited 7 • Sigmund Freud: Psychoanalytic Psychology 7 • Existential and Humanistic Psychology 8 • Cognitive Psychology 8

AREAS WITHIN PSYCHOLOGY TODAY 9

THE GOALS AND METHODS OF PSYCHOLOGY 11

The Naturalistic-Observation Method 13 • The Experimental Method 15 • The Correlational Method 16 • Ethics in Research 17

THE SOCIAL RELEVANCE OF PSYCHOLOGY 21

Basic versus Applied Psychology 21 • Using Animals in Psychological Research 22

Highlights:

Psychology and Common Sense 13 • Ethical Principles Governing Research Subjects 18

Controversy: Guinea Pigs in Psychological Research 23

Application: Psychology and Careers 24

CHAPTER 2

Physiology and Behavior 29

QUESTIONS FOR THOUGHT 29

THE NERVOUS SYSTEM 31

The Neuron 31 • The Neural Impulse 32
The Synapse 35 • Synapses and Drugs 37
Divisions of the Nervous System 39 • The Central Nervous System 40 • The Peripheral Nervous System 53

THE ENDOCRINE SYSTEM 56

The Thyroid Gland 57 • The Parathyroid Glands 57 • The Pancreas 57 • The Pituitary Gland 57
The Gonads 58 • The Adrenal Glands 59

BEHAVIOR GENETICS 59

Genetics 60 • Genetics and Behavior 63 • Social Implications of Behavior Genetics 66

Highlights:

Endorphins 38 • Brain Waves 42 • New Tools for Looking at the Brain 46 • Electrical Stimulation of the Brain 48 • What We Know—and Need to Know—about the Damaged Brain 52

Application: Brain Transplants	67

CHAPTER 3

Sensation and Perception	73
QUESTIONS FOR THOUGHT	73
THE NATURE OF SENSORY PROCESSES	74
The General Character of Sensation 74 • Sensory Thresholds 75
VISION	77
The Visual System 77 • Color Vision 84
HEARING	90
Sound 91 • The Ear 92 • Theories of Hearing 95
THE OTHER SENSES	96
Smell 96 • Taste 98 • The Vestibular Senses 100 • Sensations of Motion 101 • The Skin Senses 101 • Pain 104
PERCEPTION	105
Perceptual Organization 106 • Perceptual Constancies 108 • Observer Characteristics 111 • Perception of Distance and Depth 114 • Perception of Movement 120 • Visual Illusions 121
Highlights:
Species Differences in Color Vision 86 • Hearing Disorders 95 • Cortical Coding and Perception

110 • Subliminal Perception 113 • Extrasensory Perception 122
Application: Perception and the Blind	125

CHAPTER 4

States of Consciousness	131
QUESTIONS FOR THOUGHT	131
NONCONSCIOUS PROCESSES	133
Daydreaming 135 • Sleep and Dreaming 136
Sensory Deprivation 146 • Meditation 148
Hypnosis 149
DRUG-ALTERED CONSCIOUSNESS	152
Depressants 155 • Stimulants 161 • Hallucinogens and Marijuana 164
Highlights:
Biological Clocks 137 • The Long and Short of Sleep 140 • Drug Use and Abuse 154 • Who Drinks? 158 • Coffee and Cigarettes 162
Application: Medical versus Legal Aspects of Drug Policy	169

CHAPTER 5

Learning	175
QUESTIONS FOR THOUGHT	175
CLASSICAL CONDITIONING	177
Pavlov's Conditioning Experiments 177 • Classical Conditioning in Human Beings 178 • Necessary Factors in Classical Conditioning 181 • Extinction and Spontaneous Recovery 183 • Generalization and Discrimination 185 • Higher-Order Conditioning 185
OPERANT CONDITIONING	186
Response Acquisition 187 • Types of Reinforcement 191 • Schedules of Reinforcement 194 • Aversive Control 196 • Generalization and Discrimination 199 • Extinction and Spontaneous Recovery 201
A REVIEW OF CLASSICAL CONDITIONING AND OPERANT CONDITIONING	202
COGNITIVE LEARNING	202
Cognitive Maps and Latent Learning 203 Insight 206
CONTINGENCY THEORY	208
SOCIAL LEARNING THEORY	210
Highlights:
Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf? 180 Learning and the Birds and the Bees 188 Token Economies 193 Modifying Your Own Behavior 211
Application: Shaping Better Health through Biofeedback	215

CHAPTER 6

Memory	221
QUESTIONS FOR THOUGHT	221
THE SENSORY REGISTERS	222
Visual and Auditory Registers 223 • Initial Processing 225
SHORT-TERM MEMORY	229
Capacity of STM 229 • Coding in STM 231 Retention and Retrieval in STM 232 Rote Rehearsal 233 • Elaborative Rehearsal 235
LONG-TERM MEMORY	237
Coding in LTM 239 • Storage and Retrieval in LTM 240
SPECIAL TOPICS IN MEMORY	245
Extraordinary Memory 245 • Improving Your Memory 247
BIOLOGICAL BASES OF MEMORY	250
Highlights:
The First Scientific Research on Memory 226 • Drugs and Memory 234 • Pathology of Memory 237 • Flashbulb Memories 243
Application: Eyewitness Testimony	252

Cognition 257

QUESTIONS FOR THOUGHT 257

BUILDING BLOCKS OF THOUGHT 258

Images 258 • Concepts 260 • Language and
Thought 262

LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT
AND THOUGHT 267

A Brief Chronology 267 • Theories of Language
Development 268 • Primate Language and
Thought 270

PROBLEM SOLVING 273

The Interpretation of Problems 274 • Producing and Evaluating Solutions 276 • Obstacles to Solving Problems 282 • Becoming Better at
Problem Solving 284

DECISION MAKING 288

Highlights:

Slips of the Tongue 264 • Schizophrenic Language
266 • Teaching Problem Solving 281 • Medical
Decision Making 291

Application: Artificial Intelligence 292

Intelligence 297

QUESTIONS FOR THOUGHT 297

INTELLIGENCE 300

FORMAL THEORIES OF INTELLIGENCE 300

INTELLIGENCE TESTS 305

The Stanford-Binet Intelligence Scale 305 • The
Wechsler Intelligence Scales 306 • Group
Tests 308 • Performance and Culture-Fair
Tests 309

WHAT MAKES A GOOD TEST? 310

Reliability 310 • Validity 311 • Criticisms of IQ
Tests 313

DETERMINANTS OF INTELLIGENCE 316

Heredity 316 • Environment 318 • The Jensen
Controversy 322 • Gender Differences in Cognitive Abilities 323

EXTREMES OF INTELLIGENCE 324

Mental Retardation 324 • Giftedness 326

CREATIVITY 328

Highlights:

IQ Scores, Family Size, and Birth Order 319
Creativity Tests 329

Adolescence and Adulthood	375
QUESTIONS FOR THOUGHT	375
ADOLESCENCE	376
Reactions to Physical Changes	377
Social, Interpersonal, and Personality Development	379
Cognitive Development	384
Adolescent Reactions to Situational Stress	384
The Transition to Adulthood	388
EARLY AND MIDDLE ADULTHOOD	388
Reactions to Physical Changes	389
Social, Interpersonal, and Personality Development	391
Cognitive Development	397
Adult Reactions to Situational Stress	398

LATER ADULTHOOD	398
Reactions to Physical Changes	399
Social, Interpersonal, and Personality Development	401
Cognitive Development	403
Reactions to Situational Stress	404
Coping with the Prospect of Death	406

Highlights:

Selected Facts about Teenage Pregnancy	381
Caution: Youth Working	383
Moral Development and the Growth of Conscience	385
The Myths of Aging	400
Elisabeth Kübler-Ross and the American Way of Dying	405
