Chapter 1. Anatomy, Physiology, and Pathophysiology of Head and Face Pain	1
Trigeminal Nerve	1
Ophthalmic Division	2
Maxillary Division	4
Mandibular Division	5
Sympathetic Nervous System	6
Syndromes Involving the Trigeminal Nerve	6
Facial Nerve	10
Cervical Nerves	11
Cervical Plexus	14
Autonomic Nervous System	19
Cerebral and Extracerebral Vasculature	20
Orofacial Pain	20
Central Mechanism of Pain Transmission	20
Summary of Neurological Aspect of Head Pain	21
Chapter 2. Migraine and Migraine Variants	25
Migraine: Clinical Features and Diagnosis	27
History	28
Family History	28
Age of Onset	28
Location of Headache	28
Duration of Headache	28
Provocative Factors and Substances	28

Associated Symptoms	29
Physical Examination	31
Treatment	31
Nonpharmacological Treatment of Migraine	32
Pharmacological Treatment of Migraine	32
Preventative Medication	34
Emergency Room Treatment of Headache	37

Chapter 3. Cluster Headaches and Variants 39

Clinical Features of Cluster Headache	39
Cluster Headache Variants	41
Pathophysiology of Cluster Headache	42
Management of Cluster Headaches	43
Oxygen Inhalation	44
Ergotamine	44
Dihydroergotamine	45
Local Anesthetic Agents	46
Steroids	46
Analgesics and Narcotics	46
Prophylaxis of Cluster Headaches	46
Ergotamine Used Prophylactically	47
Dihydroergotamine	47
Corticosteroids	48
Lithium	48
Calcium Channel Blockers	48
Indomethacin	49
Histamine Desensitization	49
Beta Blockers	49
Occipital Nerve Block	49
Surgical Treatment of Intractable Cluster Headaches	50

Chapter 4. The Common Daily Headache 53

Tension Headache	56
Myofascial Pain Syndrome	57
Acute Tension Headache	58
Recurrent Tension Headache	58
Mucosal Membrane Site of Head and Neck Pain	60
Viral Vesicular Mucositis	61
Viral Pharyngitis	61

Bacterial Mucosal Infections	61
Fungal Infections of Mucosal Tissues	62
Allergic Mucositis	62
Erythema Multiformis	62
Otalgia	63
Infections of the Ear Canal	63
Middle Ear Infections	64
Paranasal Sinus Headache and Facial Pain	64
Sinus Headache	64
Ocular Pain	65
Primary Ocular Pathology Causing Pain	65
Lids	66
Conjunctiva	66
Cornea	66
Uvea	66
Lens	67
Retina	67
Optic Nerve	67
Eye Orbit	67
Eye Strain as a Cause of Headache	67
Chapter 5. Chronic Facial Pains: Neuralgias	69
Trigeminal Neuralgia	69
Medication	71
Surgical Treatment	72
Glossopharyngeal Neuralgia	73
Treatment	73
Postherpetic Neuritic Neuralgia	74
Giant Cell Arteritis	74
Chapter 6. Head and Neck Pain from the Cervical Spine	77
Tissue Sites of Craniocervical Headache	79
Cervicogenic Headache Symptomatology	83
History Consistent with Diagnosis of Cervicogenic Headache	87
Diagnosis Based on Response to Therapy	91
Head Pain from the Lower Cervical Spine	94
Chapter 7. Myofascial Pain Syndromes	100
Classification and Identification	100

Diagnosis	111
Physical Examination	113
Laboratory Confirmation	116
Treatment	116
Influence of the Sympathetic Nervous System	117

Chapter 8. Posttraumatic Headache 125

Posttraumatic Stress Syndromes	126
Pathomechanics of Head Trauma	127
Clinical Evaluation of the Head Trauma Patient	129
Diagnostic Studies	130
Management of Posttraumatic Headache	131

Chapter 9. Neurosurgical Aspects of Headache 135

Acute Intracranial Hemorrhage	137
Subarachnoid Hemorrhage	138
Intracranial Hemorrhage	138
Epidural Hematoma	139
Subdural Hematoma	139
Postconcussion Headache	140
Brain Tumors Causing Headache	140
Pseudotumor Cerebri	140
Headache from Diminished Spinal Fluid Pressure	141
Headache from Cranial Infection	141
Headache from Cervical Spine Trauma	141
Occipital Neuralgia	142

Chapter 10. Temporomandibular Joint Pain 143

Clinical Manifestations of Temporomandibular Arthralgia	152
Differential Diagnosis of TMJ Pain	153
Laboratory Diagnosis	154
Treatment	155
Treatment of Disc Derangement	156
Degenerative Arthritic Changes of TMJ	177
Manipulation of a Locked Jaw	178
Surgical Intervention	179

Chapter 11. Neurophysiological-Psychological Basis for the Management of Head-Face Pain	181
Chapter 12. Management of Head and Face Pain	200
Biofeedback	205
TENS	205
Psychotropic Medications	207
Chronic Pain	208
Chapter 13. Psychological Testing in Patients with Chronic Pain	211
Chapter 14. Clinical Aspects of Depression in Patients with Chronic Pain	215
Index	219
